Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 15-21 and 25 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Rudnick et al. (6,039,183; hereinafter Rudnick'183). Rudnick'183 discloses a package assembly/kit (20) comprising a cover (26) for a tray (22) having a plurality of recesses disposed therein, a container (24) including a base member (44) and a reclosable lid (46) hingedly connected to the base member and the container is adapted to fit at least partially within the tray. The recesses of the tray of Rudnick'183 are inherently capable of holding articles useful in performing a PEG procedure and the container capable of storing accessory items useful in performing the PEG procedure. Rudnick'183 further discloses the container comprising a securing device includes a male boss member (49) and a female recess (49).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-23 and 25-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ross et al. (5,318,543; hereinafter Ross'543) in view of Rudnick et al. (6,039,183; hereinafter Rudnick'183). Ross'543 discloses a kit (10) for holding surgical articles comprising a tray (13) having a plurality of planar surfaces with a plurality of recesses for holding surgical articles, a removable container (20) containing surgical articles (18, 19) disposed within at least one of the planar surfaces/container recess and a cover (11). Ross'543 discloses the container (20) must be removed from the tray prior to access to the articles (17, 27). Ross'543 also discloses the other claimed limitations except for the container being a substantially rigid container having a base member and a lid hingedly connected to the base member. Rudnick'183 teaches a package assembly/kit (20) comprising a cover (26) for a tray (22) having a plurality of recesses disposed therein, a container (24) including a base member (44) and a reclosable lid (46) hingedly connected to the base member and the container is adapted to fit at least partially within the tray. Rudnick'183 further teaches the container comprising a securing device includes a male boss member (49) and a female recess (49). It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made in view of Rudnick'183 to modify the container of Ross'543 so the container comprises a substantially rigid container having a base member and a lid hingedly connected to the base member to facilitate opening and/or closing the container.

Art Unit: 3728

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

6. Claims 1-23 and 25-26 are provisionally rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-21 of copending Application No. 10/085,417 and over claims 1-21 of copending Application No. 10/085,630 and over claims 1-21 of copending Application No. 10/085,639. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the structural limitations in the claims of the instant patent application are fully disclosed by the copending applications.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Allowable Subject Matter

7. Claim 24 is objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.
